

Happy Valentines Day

A day honoring Saint Valentine, a martyr associated with love and compassion. Over centuries, it transformed into a global celebration of affection. Today, saying 'Happy Valentine's Day' is more than just acknowledging a holiday—it's an act of emotional recognition. It signals that you see someone, care about their well-being, and wish them joy, regardless of their relationship status.

FIRST PLATES

roast carrot & ginger soup, horseradish cream and heart shaped croutons pan seared humboldt calamari, gun butter pea cream, pineapple and pepper salsa baked camembert, roasted garlic, red pepper jelly crostini's pacific seared tuna seasoned with citrus rub, moon of creamed vegetable puree, droplets of fruit

SALAD PLATE

arugula salad, granny smith apple, toasted seeds, red gapes with a Dijon shallot vinaigrette

PRINCIPAL PLATES

baked salmon wellington wrapped in golden puff pastry brushed with Dijon mustard, a mix of spinach, cream cheese, garlic, and parmesan cheese, on a bed of lemon-dill caper sauce. served with creamy mashed potatoes, parsnip puree and sautéed spinach decadent twice baked home baked seafood lasagna layered with a creamy homemade white sauce, salmon, octopus, prawns and white fish, with a splash of tomato. served with salad and baked oyster crostini's authentic ragù bolognese with beef and pork cooked in milk, onion, carrot, celery in a white wine tomato sauce with pappardelle pasta west coast seafood or vegan sausage fettuccine, rose sauce of tomatoes & white wine, red pepper droplets, shaved parmesan truffle risotto with acquerello cured rice, Powell River foraged wild mushrooms, capped with parmesan cheese, asparagus and porcini sauce

SHARING PLATE

strawberry champagne cheesecake with Scottish shortbread and vanilla cream chocolate decadence cake with strawberry glaze and vanilla cream

$138 per couple